An artist in hair, commonly called a barber, was yesterday br ught up before the culine gender, and we must admit that Boston Police Court, charged first, with doing work on Sunday, shaving other persons than himself; and second, with keeping open a work-house for that purpose-the same not being in the lansuage of the charge, "a work of necessity or charity." The judges were all of the same opinion. The decision was first, that shaving on Sunday was a work both of necessity and charity. "If shaving, by a barber, or another person on Sunday," said the justices, "is not a work of necessity or charity, then is a person who shaves himself liable, and even the cooking of food upon that day is illegal. The exchange of ministers, the celebration of the marriage rite, or the performance of the funeral ceremony might be held as an infringement of the law." On the second point, that of keeping open a shop on Sunday for shaving, the justices decided that the Legislature never intended to bring such cases before the scope of the law in regard to the infringement of Sunday. One of the justices had some doubts on this last point, but he gave a Sunday beard the benefit of the doubt, and coincided with his brethren. The barber artist was, therefore, discharged, invested with the right of free labor, with razor and sheers

"The nicest article for washing windows is deer skin, as no particles come off to adhere to the glass and make it look as if washed with feathers. There is no need of any thing larger than a hand basin for washing windows. The great splashing some people make in the and is, moreover, deleterious. When the water is permitted to run down in great quantities upon the glass it dissolves the putty and soon loosens the panes from their setting and also stains the glass. Two pieces of nice wipe leather and a bowl of suds are all that is necessary. Wipe the glass first with a a wet cloth or leather, and after it has become dry with the clean cloth, and it will look far more clear than if rinsed in a dozen pales with the officer, who used his best en-

A Mission Sarmon.—The following occurrence took place at the Old South hurch on Sunday last. The venerable Dr Lyman Beecher was supplying the pulpit, and in the afternoon placed his manuscript sermon in the Bible and turned over the leaves to another part of the book to read his text. In the meantime he had forgot where he had placed his sermon, and when he wished to begin its delivery, it was so nicely placed between the leaves that he did not discover it. He looked under the Bible and around the desk, and even peeped over the front of the pulpit to see if it had not perhaps fallen over, but all in vain, and the Doctor began to exhibit evident signs of anxiety. A man seated in the gallery. and who saw clearly the cause of his embarrassment, applied an effectual remedy by rising and saying, "Dr. Beecher-it's in the Bible." The Dr. renewed his search, and in a moment was ready for the delivery of his sermon. - Boston Trav-" A young man addicted to intemper-

Brought home to the door of the Million. A WONDERFUL discovery has recently been made by Dr. Curtis of this city, in the treatment of Consumption, Asthma, and all diseases of the Lungs. We refer to DR CURTIS'S HYGE ANA. OR INHALING HYGEAN VAPOR AND CHERRY SYRUP." With this new method, Dr C. has restored many afflicted ones to health, as an evidence of which he has innumerable certificates Speaking of the treatment, a physician remarks, "It is evident that inhaling-constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor-the medicinal properties must come in direct contact with the whole arial cavitie of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subject to the process of digestion " The Hygena is for sale at all the Druggist's throughout the country .- N. York Dutchman of Jan. 14. The Inha'er is worn on the breast under the lines without the least inconvenience-the heat of the

as a remedy in diseases of the throat and Lungs -Having had some opportunity to testify its efficacy, I am convinced that it is a most excellent medicine, both the Syrup and the inhaling application t the chest. Prof. S. CENTER writes us as follows: Gentlemen-I have recently had occasion to test your Cherry Syrup and Hygean Vapor, in a case of chronic sore throat, that had refused to yield to other forms of treatment, and the result has satisfied me that, whatever may be the composition of your preparation, it is no imposition, but an excellent remedy. I wish, for the sake of the afflicted, that it might be brought within the reach of all. Dr Johns, one of the most celebrated Physicians in New York writes as follows: Dr. Curtis-Dear Sir-Having witnessed the excellent effects of your Hygeana or inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup, in case of Chronic Brenchitis, and being much in favor of counter irritation in affections of the throat, Bronchial tubes and lungs I can therefore cheerfully recommend your Medicated Apparatus as being the most convenient and effectual mode of applying anything of the kind i have ever seen. No doubt, thousands of persons may be relieved, and many cured, by using your medicines. I must here be allowed to confess that I am op posed to prescribing or using secret compounds, but this little neatly contrived article, and its effects in the case above aliuded to, have induced me to speak

Their way led to a public house in a small village in Jefferson county, Pennsylvania, kept by a very worthy gentleman, the hus band of a fine looking woman, and the father of an interesting little daughter. A few days after their arrival, the witof the travellers were set to work, it is alleged, to appropriate the snug quarters to themselves, and during several days' absence of the landlord from his home the mother of the daguerreotypist, it is alleged, by some means or other, induced the wife of the landlord to elope with her son.
